

FACE A SIGHT WITH BLOTCHES

Spread to Arms and Body. Burning Terrible. Itching Intense. In One Month

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"Victory blazes out on my face. My face was so full of blotches and so itchy that I was unable to go out. I became hard and cracked. This disfigured me; my face was a sight. The eruption then spread to my arms and body, taking the form of red, rough blotches. They ran water and burned some thing terrible. The itching was so intense that I scratched and irritated the itching out."

"A friend suggested that I use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used two boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Soap and was healed in one month." (Signed) Josephine Eves, 125 Eldridge St., New York City, Jan. 8, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail With 20-c. Skin Book on request. All drug post-card "Cuticura, Soap, T. B. Ointment." Sold throughout the world.

BROOKLYN PRISONERS IN PROTEST AGAINST FAVORS TO GROUT

Declare Former Borough Head and Banker Gets Many Concessions.

A protest against what is termed gross favoritism shown Edward M. Grout, convicted former President of the Union Bank of Brooklyn, was made to-day by Warden John Hayes by several hundred prisoners of the Raymond Street, Brooklyn, jail. The protest was referred by the Warden to Commissioner of Correction Katharine B. Davis and a general investigation of conditions has been ordered. The prisoners demand either that they be accorded the same privileges alleged to have been granted the former Comptroller and Borough President of Brooklyn, or that he be treated like any other inmate.

The most serious complaint is that Grout, because of his wealth and political influences, is permitted to violate one of the most stringent rules of the prison. This applies to the hours when visitors may see inmates. When the protests reached him Warden Hayes tried to explain to the inmates that Grout was being treated in accordance with the terms of an order of Supreme Court Justice Kelly. It is explained that the issuance of the court order was necessitated by the big business interests of Mr. Grout.

The other prisoners reply by claiming that more than half the present inmates might set up such a claim and enjoy the same privileges. In the event Commissioner Davis does not take action, a petition will be submitted to Supreme Court Justice Kelly. Commissioner Davis is under stood to believe an order of the court cannot be disobeyed.

Body Afloat Off Astoria.
The body of a naked man was found off Remsen Street, Astoria, last night. The man was about thirty-five years old, five feet five inches, 100 pounds weight, dark hair and mustache. On the middle finger of the right hand was a ring with a woman's head engraved on a stone surrounded by small rubies.
